

CUSTOMER ADVISORY

Operational Guidelines and Risk Management for
Strait of Hormuz & Red Sea Transits

01

MARITIME & REGIONAL SECURITY RISKS

- Customers acknowledge that cargo transported via feeder vessels through the Strait of Hormuz & Red Sea may be subject to increased risks, including war risks, geopolitical events, and maritime disruptions.

02

INSURANCE COVERAGE REQUIREMENTS

- The customer is solely responsible for arranging adequate marine cargo insurance, including war risk coverage.

03

CARRIER OPERATIONAL FLEXIBILITY

- The carrier reserves the right to alter routing, ports of call, transshipment points, and schedules without prior notice due to operational, safety, or regulatory requirements.

04

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- CSS shall not be liable for any loss, damage, delay, or additional costs arising from war risks, route deviations, carrier or authority actions, or any events beyond its reasonable control.
